DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The specification is objected to because it fails to include section headings. Appropriate correction is required.

The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC (See 37 CFR 1.52(e)(5) and MPEP 608.05. Computer program listings (37 CFR 1.96(c)), "Sequence Listings" (37 CFR 1.821(c)), and tables having more than 50 pages of text are permitted to be submitted on compact discs.) or REFERENCE TO A "MICROFICHE APPENDIX" (See MPEP § 608.05(a). "Microfiche Appendices" were accepted by the Office until March 1, 2001.)
- (e) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (f) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (g) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (h) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (i) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (j) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

Claim Objections

2. Claim 4 is objected to because the phrase “secret key K1 of the chip card” in line 7 lacks antecedent basis. It appears that the applicant intended the phrase to read “secret key K1 of the security element”. Appropriate correction is required.

The objection above is also applicable to claim 5.

Claim 8 is objected to because of grammatical errors. The phrase “according to any one of claim 1” in lines 2-3 is grammatically incorrect. It appears that the applicant intended the phrase to read “according to claim 1”. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

The applicant's specification is non-enabling in regards to the security element comprising the decryption circuit. More specifically, it is unclear how the decryption circuit can be used to “sign” (decrypt) the digital data, if the digital data has not been encrypted prior to the decryption process. The Examiner notes that decryption is defined as the process of restoring encrypted data. Therefore, in order to perform decryption of digital data, the data must be in encrypted form. There appears to be no support in the applicant's specification that discloses a process for encrypting the digital data prior to "signing" (decrypting) the data with the decryption circuit. Therefore, the applicant's specification fails to describe the security device in such a way as to enable the ordinary artisan to utilize the device.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

a. Brothers et al., U.S. Patent No. 5,799,083 discloses a device for authenticating the taking of pictures made up of digital data comprising a picture taking apparatus (camera) and a security element (12) that is detachable (col. 2, lines 42-49 and figure 3).

b. Vu et al., U.S. Patent No. 6,557,104 discloses a detachable security element (smart card) comprising an encryption circuit with a secret key, wherein the security element carries out the signing of digital data (col. 1, line 58-col. 2, line 10).

c. The COMPUTER DICTIONARY by Microsoft Press provides a definition of decryption and encryption:

decryption the process of restoring encrypted data to its original form (page 114).

encryption the process of making information indecipherable to protect it from unauthorized viewing or use (page 146).
